🔗 About Me

Hi there! I'm Unal 🙋

From Languages to Code: A Translator's Journey into Frontend

As a professional translator, I've spent years building bridges between cultures. Now, I'm applying that same logic and structural thinking to Frontend Development. I believe that writing clean code is just another way of articulating ideas clearly.

🚀 What I'm Up To

- Frontend Development: Currently focused on building responsive and user-friendly interfaces.
- Learning Path: Deep diving into React and mastering advanced JavaScript.
- Polyglot Mindset: My passion for learning new languages helps me adapt to new technologies quickly.
